Family Law Lawyer

Javed Law Professional Corporation is a small, fast paced, and rapidly growing family law firm located in Barrie, Ontario. We are currently seeking a Family Law Associate with at least 1-2 years experience. The ideal candidate will be willing to work with both Legal Aid and private clients, have the ability to manage their resources efficiently, be a self starter, have the capability to advocate confidently for your clients, demonstrate strong communication skills (both written and oral), and successfully lead conversations with your clients.

Join our team at Javed Law Professional Corporation and become part of our supportive team that believes in collaboration, a strong work-life balance, and knows the importance of professional growth and opportunity.

Primary Duties:

- Carriage of family law files from inception through to resolution, including divorce, parenting time issues, child/spousal support, protection matter, and division of properties;
- Draft pleadings, briefs, motion materials, legal correspondence, domestic contracts, etc.
- Professionally represent your clients in court (in person and via Zoom).
- Collaborate with the Javed Law team and contribute to a supportive team atmosphere.
- Conduct legal research.

Salary:

At Javed Law we offer a fee split arrangement of 60%-65%, depending on experience. A candidate with an entrepreneurial spirit would benefit greatly from this arrangement.

This position is located in Barrie, Ontario and the selected candidate will be required to attend the office in person daily, with the possibility to a gradual hybrid position after the first 3 months.

To apply, please email your resume to kaylyn@javedlaw.ca

We thank all those for applying but only those selected for an interview will be contacted.
